

Special Consideration

Purpose of this form

You can apply for special consideration if something out of the ordinary and beyond your control happens to you, and it impacts on your ability to complete an assessment task. You will be required to provide documentation to support your application (e.g. Medical Impact Statement, Statutory Declaration, police report, etc.). For further information, visit the Special Consideration website.

If your application for special consideration is based on medical grounds, you must submit a Medical Impact Statement (page 3 of this form) completed by your Professional Practitioner to support your application.

Guidelines for Special Consideration

- The policy for special consideration is detailed in item 5.2 in the Assessment and Results Policy
- You may apply for special consideration if you have been:
 - significantly hampered, by illness or other extraordinary causes, from preparing or presenting for an assessment task
 - adversely affected by illness or other extraordinary causes, during the performance of an assessment task
- When your medical condition does not prevent you from attending or sitting an assessment task, you:
 - must attend and sit the assessment task; and
 - may apply for special consideration if you consider that you have grounds under the Academic Courses Regulation 44.
- When a decision is being made about this application, the following will be considered:
 - your performance in other assessment tasks in the unit and/or whether you have met all other requirements for successful completion of the unit
 - the nature of the special circumstances
 - the relevance, nature and authenticity of the evidence provided
 - the requirements and any constraints of the particular assessment task
- The outcome of your application may be that you:
 - are granted an extension to the due date for your assessment task
 - are given special arrangements for your assessment task
 - may be able to re-do one or more of your assessment tasks
 - are not granted special consideration (a full reason will be provided).

Submission Details

- This application must be received no later than 5pm on the third working day after the submission date for the assessment task for which Special Consideration is being claimed.
- This form must be completed, scanned with supporting documentation and submitted via e-mail to VE-Progressions@swin.edu.au
- Late applications or applications that do not meet the documentation requirements as stipulated by the University may be deemed ineligible.
- E-mail VE-Progressions@swin.edu.au if you:
 - are unable to submit the form by the deadline OR
 - change your mind and wish to retract your special consideration application. You have two days to retract a special consideration application once lodged.

Registered Practitioner Statement

This statement must be completed by a registered medical/health practitioner for a student whose work for a piece of assessment, including examinations, has been adversely affected. Swinburne University of Technology will give special consideration to students only in circumstances of an acute illness, condition or extraordinary event beyond their control. Guidelines for completing this form are on Page 2.

1. Registered Practitioner Assessment

I, _____ (name), a registered medical/health practitioner, declare that I had a consultation with _____ (student's name) on _____ (date) and in my opinion have determined:

- the student is diagnosed with/experiencing _____ or
- the student is experiencing an illness of a confidential nature or
- the student stated _____, however, I am unable to assess as symptoms are no longer present.

We have discussed the nature of the illness that this student is experiencing and I have determined that in regard to the student's capacity to attend classes, complete assessment requirements or sit an examination, the student has been assessed as:

Degree of Impact	From (date)	To (date)
Minor impact – the condition is not serious and has not had a significant impact on the student's ability to attend class/complete assessment(s)/sit an examination.
Moderate impact – the condition has caused considerable discomfort but has not had a severe impact on their ability to attend class/complete the assessment task/sit an examination.
Severe impact – the condition has severely affected the student and they are unable to attend class/complete the assessment(s)/sit an examination or their level of performance in an examination will be affected.
Total incapacitation – the condition has affected the student to such an extent that they are totally unable to attend class/undertake the assessment task/sit an examination e.g. bedridden, hospitalised or broken dominant hand.

Guidelines for Registered Practitioner Statement

Swinburne University of Technology appreciates you taking the time to help our student assess the impact of their illness or injury. The information you provide here will ensure that the assessment process is fair and equitable.

These guidelines have been written to assist you, as a medical/health practitioner, to understand the purpose and use of the university's Registered Practitioner Statement in the special consideration process.

The purpose of special consideration is to give a student, whose work for a particular piece of assessment has been adversely affected by an extraordinary event beyond their control, a further opportunity to demonstrate their ability.

1. Use of the Registered Practitioner Statement

This statement is included in the application that a student submits to Swinburne for special consideration. It will allow Swinburne to verify the student's claim and to determine the form of consideration to be given based on the student's circumstances.

The information you supply on this document will be available to those staff who need access to it in order to carry out their duties in accordance with Swinburne's privacy policy.

2. What is special consideration granted for?

Special consideration is granted to a student in circumstances of acute illness or condition, or an extraordinary circumstance which has directly impacted their ability to perform an assessment task.

Please be aware that Swinburne has a variety of support services available for students who may be experiencing chronic illness or disability. They include AccessAbility Services (for assessment and examination adjustments), Swinburne Health Services (for counselling and psychological services and general medical treatment) and Student Financials (for financial assistance).

3. What information must a Registered Practitioner Statement include?

The Registered Practitioner Statement must include:

- a. The practitioner's name, contact details, provider or registration number and signature
- b. The date of the consultation
- c. An evaluation by the practitioner, psychologist, etc. of the duration and degree of impact on the student's ability to attend classes, study or complete assessment requirements
- d. The date the statement was written and signed.

The Registered Practitioner Statement is to be completed by a registered medical/health practitioner within the scope of their practice, who is not a family member and does not have a close or personal relationship with the student.

Please issue the statement in line with guidelines provided by your professional association and only in respect of an illness, injury or extraordinary circumstances that you have observed. Please do not provide post-dated statements, as these will not be accepted by Swinburne.
